JOINT MOTION TO SET BRIEFING SCHEDULE AND FORMATS

On September 4, 2026, this Court denied the federal defendants' motion for a stay pending appeal and ordered the parties to propose an expedited briefing schedule and format by September 14, 2026. On September 8, 2026, the federal defendants filed an application for a stay with the Supreme Court, No. 26A308. The parties then moved to delay the proposal of a briefing schedule and format until seven days after the Supreme Court's disposition of the government's stay application. This Court granted that motion on September 14, 2026. The parties now jointly propose the following briefing schedule and format:

- Opening brief for the federal defendants and Joint Appendix due November 6, 2026. Type-volume limitation of 13,000 words.
- Opening brief for Texas due November 13, 2026. Type-volume limitation of 13,000 words.
- Answering brief for plaintiffs due January 8, 2027. Type-volume limitation of 20,000 words.
- Reply briefs for federal defendants and Texas due January 29, 2027. Type-volume limitation of 6,500 words per brief.

Respectfully submitted,
